OVERVIEW

THIS TOUR IS SUITABLE FOR:

- Someone who is into exotic travel
- Someone who is into historical sites
- Someone who is into Mother Nature

Uzbekistan and Turkmenistan are two countries in Central Asia that are relatively new to the tourism industry. However, both countries have rich histories and cultures that attract more and more visitors every year.

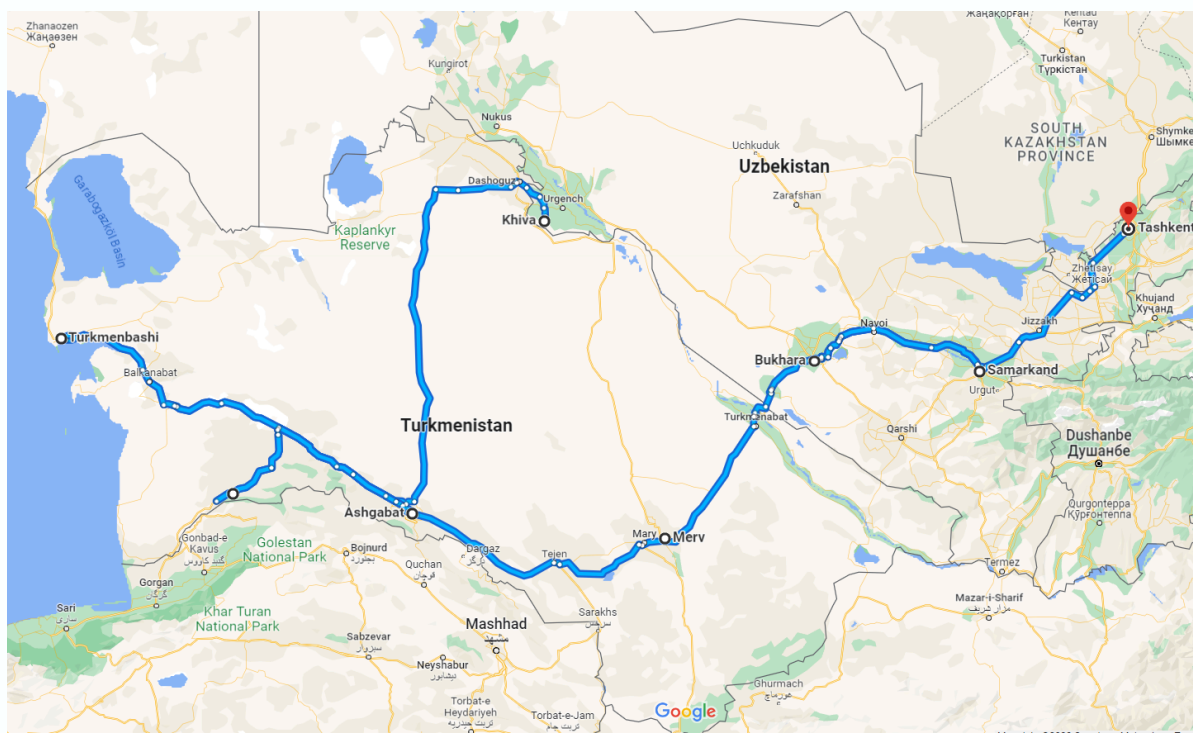

In Uzbekistan, tourists can explore the ancient cities of Samarkand, Bukhara, and Khiva, all of which are UNESCO World Heritage Sites. These cities are known for their stunning Islamic architecture, colorful bazaars, and traditional crafts such as ceramics, textiles, and woodcarving. Uzbekistan is also famous for its cuisine, which features a wide variety of dishes made with fresh ingredients and bold spices.

Turkmenistan is renowned for its striking desert landscapes, including the Darvaza gas crater (also known as the "Door to Hell"), which has become a popular destination for adventurous travelers. The country is also home to several ancient ruins, including the remnants of the ancient city of Merv, once a major center of the Silk Road trade route.

During this 14-day tour, we will explore these two countries, visiting famous historical sites and must-see destinations. We will have the opportunity to experience an overnight train ride and yurt camping near the Gates of Hell.
